

Preface

For parents and guardians

All praises and thanks are due to Allah and the Darood and Salaam (Salutations) be upon the Prophet.

The Prophet Sallallahu Alayhiwa Sallam said:

"Each of you is a shepherd and each of you is responsible for his flock. The ruler is a shepherd and is responsible for his flock. A man is a shepherd and is responsible for his flock. A woman is the shepherd of her husband's household and is responsible for her flock. The servant is the shepherd of his master's wealth and is responsible for his flock. A man is the shepherd of his father's wealth and is responsible for his flock. Each of you is a shepherd and is responsible for his flock".

This is a beautiful hadith of the Prophet Sallallahu Alayhiwa Sallam which shows everybody's responsibility towards each other.

There is no doubt that our children are a gift from Allah and it is our responsibility that we nurture them in the best way possible. There is a great chance of being questioned on the Day of Judgment for dismissing our responsibility towards our children. Together it is the duty of parents and teachers to ensure we can provide these children with the best tarbiyah (education and cultivation) so it will be beneficial for both us and them, now and in the hereafter. We would like to request all parents to take the utmost care in educating their children by reminding their children to use these Islamic teachings in their daily life.

We pray to Allah to make our children the coolness of our eyes and make us the coolness of our parent's eyes.

Aamin.
